In 1892 we sold to all Asiatic countries to the value of $10,500,000 and bought from them goods valued at $80,138,231.

With a respectable merchant marine of our own and a Nicaragua Canal, we would soon sell Asia as much as the title to us.

Mr. Stoll has placed himself in line with the progress of the age in ruling that Catholic parents have the right to send their children to the public schools.

When Cleveland and Carlisle put the sugar duty on again the workman's free breakfast table will rise up in its wrath and jump on them with all four of its legs.

The Postmaster General has notified Senators and members of the House of Representatives that hereafter he will require, in addition to their recommendation, some local expression of the patrons of the office as to the fitness of the applicant.

The proposition to change the day of inauguration from March 4th to April 30th is worthy of consideration. If the question were left to the people it would be decided in the affirmative, if not unanimously, at least by an overwhelming majority.

Louisiana sugar planters do not seem to take much stock in Democratic pledges to abolish the bounty. They are said to be liberally increasing their acreage. Perhaps they have had a tip from the rest that the sugar tariff is to be restored.

With some of Vice President Stevenson, Secretary Carlisle and Minister Gray occupying lucrative berths under their respective fathers, it is evident that the old Democratic cry against "nepotism" has gone to join the "Billionaire Congress" bugaboo.

For a third of a century the Democratic party has not had such a chance to show that it does not know how to govern as it will have in the next four years. The Bourbons can be depended upon to make the most of the opportunity for exhibiting their own capacity.

The action of the Administration in blocking Hawaiian annexation assurs for Canadian annexation in case our Northern neighbors should apply for admission to the Union during the next four years. Domestic industry is not the only National interest jeopardized by Democratic success.

For thirty-two years Democrats have been free to declaim against Republican legislation without being themselves called upon to place a single law on the statute books. They are now about to receive a lesson in the appalling difference between empty professions of abstract principles and positive enactment of those principles into law.

The prize for bigotry ought to be sent to Gloucester, N. J. A Protestant Church there, whose denomination we respect too highly to mention its name, has discharged its Minister for buying a second-hand organ from a Catholic Church. No wonder Gloucester had such a bad reputation for race track scandals if any of its good people are as narrow minded as that.

The New Orleans Times-Democrat says the Democrats fought the last campaign partially upon a demand for the revision of the pension laws and a reduction of the pension burden. They appealed the Republican party for the looseness and extravagance of the laws on this subject. In the face of such a pledge as they made to the country it is not encouraging to see that no leading Democrat can suggest any remedy.

If Mr. Cleveland had been re-elected in 1888 instead of being defeated, would he have felt it necessary to drop all of his first appointees at the expiration of their four years and put in a complete new body of officials? The true rule in filling the service is obviously to select the best and fittest man. If the former incumbent of a place is clearly the best man for it he should be chosen. If a new aspirant is worthier and better fitted he should be named.

A somewhat practical Kentuckian swooned down on the White House cupant a few days ago and the end of the dialogue that followed: Hayseed—Mister Cleveland, I run the Postoffice in my town in Edmonson county, Kentucky, last time you run the thing at I'm here to get her ag'in.

Clevo—Can't get it. Hayseed—For why kain't I? Clevo—Because a man who has held office once can't do so again. Hayseed—Then why in the hell don't yer practice 'em yer preach. 'W at you doin' here?

MILTON J. DURHAM of Harrodsburg doesn't take much stock in Mr. Cleveland's declaration that ex-officers should not apply for a new lamp and cannot change to burn, and now a "billy" got of E. W. Spalding at Morganfield is panning for fame in the same line. A lantern was taken from E. W. Spalding's livery stable and his ganestry tried his horse on it, setting fire to the stable. The flames, however, were quickly extinguished by a good fireman.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND would have made a better argument in favor of one term for a public official if he had applied it to his own case.

The money on deposit in the savings banks of New York state has now reached the enormous sum of $500,000,000. The increase last year alone amounted to $40,000,000. And this vast store of wealth is the result of the thrift and industry of the laboring classes, despite the Democratic cry that America is being ruined by the oppressions of the tariff. It lacks but a few million of being equal to the entire sum saved by the thrifty people of all thrifty France.

JACK HENDRICK the Attorney General who edits "The Daily Opinion" from the honeypots at Frankfort says Building Association mortgages must be listed for taxation. And then comes Auditor NORMAN who sends out a telegram saying that Jack said so. And now comes a dozen members of the Legislature who say that the law does not contemplate taxing Building Association mortgages! In the name of every man, woman and child outside the lunatic asylum, will somebody tell us what is law and what is not law in Kentucky?

The rule adopted by President CLEVELAND that no applications for appointments will be entertained from those who held positions under his first administration, says The Globe-Democrat of St. Louis, is a practical declaration in favor of the doctrine of rotation in office. It is equivalent to saying that a single term of four years is long enough for any citizen to remain in the public service, and that he should then step aside for the rest of his life and let others take their turn. This is not a novel theory, but is one that flatly recognizes the fundamental idea of civil service reform.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND is said to have decided upon a policy expected to materially extend American foreign trade. This is to appoint as Consuls, especially in Central and South America, men of exceptional business qualifications, who can aid in working up a market for American merchandise. This is in harmony with the expressed intention of General GRANT that he be given another term and that the reciprocity treaties made by a Republican Administration, and the selection of business men for important Consular positions by Mr. CLEVELAND, there will be a season of prosperity.

CLEVELAND, M. D.

Disappointed With the Make-up of Senate Committees,

Which Were Organized Contrary to the Wishes of the President.

The Prominence of Senators Hill and Murphy Not Relieved—Unless Changes Be Made No More Nominations Will Be Made to the Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The truth has at last come out. The president has been subjected to the make-up of the senate committees and has served notice that unless changes are made at once no more nominations will be sent to the senate. Cleveland sent word to the capitol by Senator Vilas Thursday that he was displeased and that the senate must not reorganize with the committees as decided upon. He is most positive in two things. He does not want Hill on the judiciary committee, nor does he want Murphy on commerce. "Why should Hill be given a big chairmanship like emigration, I can not see," he is quoted as saying. "But I will not let it go to have both the New York senators in positions to defeat all my important nominations. These committees handle all the nominations in two big departments," and added, "I am at the mercy of these two men."

"Then look at Brice assignments. He is an enemy of mine, and has more to do with the reorganization than any one else. The finance committee is another arrangement which, to say the least, is most unsatisfactory. These words were reported to the senators just before 12 o'clock Thursday. When Brice heard it his face got red and it is said he remarked, "If Cleveland don't like the assignments he can go to—". What Hill and Murphy said is not reported. But Hill had proposed his trip to New York and his conferences with a number of anti-Cleveland men. To say that the senators are mad does not convey an idea of one half the state of their minds. They acted quickly. They adjourned at once, without setting any time for a caucus.

From good authority it comes that they sent word to Mr. Cleveland that if he wanted a fight they were ready. They have reorganized some of the committees and if he don't like them he can keep his nominations to himself.

THAT DENVER GOLD.

Treasury Officials Deny that a Big Loss in Shrinkage Will Result. WASHINGTON, March 17.—With regard to the dispatch from Denver intimating that there is a hitch in the contemplated exchange of $1,000,000 in gold for a like amount of the new currency, as proposed by the Denver banks, treasury officials said Thursday that there was apparently some error. The dispatch stated that should the negotiations be completed on the present basis the Denver banks would lose on the transaction not less than $3,000, because in weighing the coin a depreciation of $1 in every $3,000 had been found, but that, notwithstanding this, the banks would stick to their contract, winners or losers.

Mr. Daskam, chief of the public money division, thinks that so great a depreciation as $1 in $3,000 could only be accounted for by the subtraction of the bulk of the coin to the sweating of gold coin until a deposit of gold dust has accumulated in the bag. Mr. Daskam was of the opinion that it would be four or five years before the gold dust would come within the legal abrasion limit of one-half of 1 per cent, when of course the treasury would receive it at its face value.

Wanted For Forgery. New York, March 17.—The police of this city have been notified by the Ballston, N. Y., authorities to look out for and arrest Arvid H. Houton, who is wanted there for paying a hotel bill with a forged check. Harcourt was in the oil brokerage business in Chicago last summer under the name of W. Raymond. He was not successful in business there, but was successful in passing a number of forged checks, which he is now accused of passing here. There seems to be a mystery as to how the man got on the track.

Three Men in Front of a Train. NEW YORK, March 17.—A newsman, supposed to be W. Richa, committed suicide by throwing himself in front of an "L" train on the Tenth avenue line. There seems to be a mystery as to how the man got on the track.

Senator Morgan's Condition. SOUTHAMPTON, March 17.—Although Senator Morgan is gaining strength rapidly, he is still unable to leave his room, but as his presence is urgently required in Paris, he will make the attempt to do so.

Sawing in the West. OMAHA, Neb., March 17.—A great snow storm began Thursday morning all over the west, from Omaha to the Rockies, and it is said that all trains from the west are hours overdue.

CAPITAL NOTES.

What is Going on at the Seat of Government.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Green B. Baum has resigned as commissioner of pensions and Deputy Davidson has been placed in charge of the bureau pending the appointment of Baum's successor. The president accepted the resignation and said a new man would be nominated in a short time. In all probability the office will go to an Illinoisan.

Mr. Bixley called on Atty-Gen. Olney Thursday, and presented the application of James J. Gardner of Maryland to be attorney for the western district of Pennsylvania.

Secretary of Agriculture Morton is making an appointment in his department which will cause a sensation. The veteran statistician of the department, Mr. Dodge, who gives to the country the monthly crop report, will be retired, and his place will be filled by Labor Commissioner Henry W. Robinson, of Michigan.

Princesses Mahalia and suit were entertained at luncheon Thursday on the receiving ship Dale, stationed at the Washington navy-yard, with the commanding officer and Mrs. Houston. The democratic cause which has been considering the question whether or not the organization of a senate shall be completed by the election of officers, was in session for several hours Thursday evening, and decided in favor of the monthly crop report, the republicans out.

Protests against the licensing of the engineer officers of the steamship New England, which was filed at the treasury department, but it is understood that Secretary Carlisle will not reopen the case.

The treasury department has issued a statement showing that the total exports of beef, hog and dairy products for the first three months of 1893, against $10,271,536 for the same month in 1892.

still in a Comatose State.

BALTIMORE, March 17.—Miss Lizette Ensor, whose prolonged comatose state has attracted the attention of physicians, became pulid Thursday afternoon and her body became rigid. Her mother placed her ears to the girl's heart, but the latter opened her eyes and said: "Don't worry mother, all is well." She then asked to see a friend, but before the latter arrived Miss Ensor again relapsed into unconsciousness. It is now eleven weeks since the girl went into a trance which resulted from a fright in church.

The Accident Was Unavoidable.

PITTSBURGH, March 17.—The coroner's jury which Wednesday investigated the crash on the Pennsylvania road near South Station, on Washington street, when five persons were killed, Wednesday night reached a verdict that the collision was an unavoidable accident, caused by the slippery condition of the rails. The passengers were displaced, but the air brakes refused to work and the express train crashed into the local train by its own momentum.

The Silver Statue of Ada Rehan.

NEW YORK, March 17.—A morning paper states that the full length statue of Miss Ada Rehan for the Montana exhibition at the World's Columbian Exposition will be ready for shipment.

The Remains Still Unburied.

RUTLAND, Vt., March 17.—The body of Timothy Smith, a twenty years old boy, who died of pneumonia, who died in Rutland suddenly February 25, are still unburied. His children have thought possibly he was not dead. He had the habit of smoking a pipe, and that he was dead, yet in deference to his wishes that his body be kept until signs of decomposition were apparent, the body of the corpse lies in the family residence.

Angus Bratt's Strange Announcement.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., March 17.—Angus Bratt, who some years since was the plaintiff in the celebrated case for killing a man who had attempted to outrage his daughter, and was afterwards pardoned, Thursday surprised the authorities by appearing at the City hall and announcing that he was in sane and desired to be locked up. At examination on Thursday he was really badly off in his mental equilibrium.

Gladiators' Offer to the Vatica.

LONDON, March 17.—The Rome correspondent of the Standard says that Mr. Gladstone has agreed to restore diplomatic relations with the Vatican, on condition that the pope use his influence in favor of the home rule bill. An intercommunion, says the correspondent, will be sent to London to ratify a final agreement with the government. He will not be received at court.

New Gaming Bill for Kentucky.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 17.—The house decided from its former action upon the gaming bill, and concurred in the senate amendment to the bill relating to gaming, which prohibits the operation of billiard or pool tables in the same apartment with a saloon, or opening into a saloon room. The bill was passed and is now a law.

A Generous Gift.

NEW YORK, March 17.—The Madison Avenue Reformed church, Rev. Dr. Abbott E. Kittredge, pastor, is the recipient of a gift of $50,000 from Isaac N. Brokaw, for the erection of a missionary building, conditioned upon the purchase of a site by the congregation, at First avenue and Sixtieth street, which will cost $20,000.

Protests Against a Quarantine Station.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—A vigorous protest has been received at the treasury department from the residents of Maryland and Virginia, and the people of Baltimore against the recent action of the department in ordering the establishment of a quarantine station on the Potomac.

The Swedish Exhibit Will Be the Finest.

The Largest Appropriation Made by Any European Government.

THE MOST PROMINENT Exhibit Will Be Iron and Steel—The Exhibit Will Be Small, But It Will Prove a Big Surprise to All the Judges.

NEW YORK, March 17.—Arthur Leffler, the chief commissioner for the kingdom of Sweden to the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago, and Axel Welin, assistant secretary to the royal Swedish commission for the Chicago fair, are at the Metropolitan hotel. They say the Swedish exhibit will be one of the finest at the fair. Mr. Leffler says that the government has appropriated $1,000,000 for the exhibit to be sent to Chicago, and that amount, in proportion to the population of the kingdom, is the largest appropriation made by any European country.

"The Swedish government is taking more than an ordinary interest in the fair," said Mr. Leffler in the course of his talk, "and it has done something in the way of appropriating money to the exhibit. It is a big thing, in addition to the $200,000 crowns for the exhibit the kingdom has appropriated $1,000,000 crowns for the mechanical engineers of the country to the fair. Sweden regards the exposition as a great educational institution, and has sent mechanical engineers to get the benefits of a visit to Chicago, and the $50,000 crowns is for the purpose of assisting them."

"The exhibit left Sweden on March 2 and was transferred to a vessel that sailed from Liverpool Thursday. The exhibit will be here in a week or ten days and the articles will be in their places in our building at the fair grounds by April 10. The most prominent articles will be the exhibits of iron and steel. The other articles will be in clay, cement, wood pulp, porcelain, and other articles. Some of the work will be comparatively small, but it will prove to be a surprise to the judges in the art department. There are only one or two exhibits of the kind in the department, but some of the most celebrated artists of Europe have contributed; among the 300 works in oil-paint and water colors some superb work will be seen. Among the artists who have entered the contest for honors are Arneberg, Berg, Bjork, Hageborg, Krouner, Carl, and others. The work of Rosen and Prince Eugene, the fourth son of King Oscar. The prince is a great artist and could easily make a good living out of his brush. Some of his work will probably carry off honors. Two of our great sculptors, Kasselberg and Borsing, have also contributed some of their skill to the exhibit."

THE HAWAIIAN QUESTION.

The New Administration Feels it Necessary to Treat the Hawaiian Question.

NEW YORK, March 17.—The Washington correspondent of the Sun says: "It is known that Judge Gresham has been asked to pay due attention to the Hawaiian question. This will be made obvious when the official dispatches which are now on their way to Honolulu are published. 'A friend of President Cleveland is my authority for the statement that the new administration feels it necessary to begin the Hawaiian business anew, and the difference between what will be done and what was intended by the late administration will mainly be a matter of manner and of length of time taken to accomplish results so nearly the same that it will require fine analysis to distinguish between them.'"

Short Session of the Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The senate was in session less than three minutes Thursday, after hearing the prayer they adjourned until Monday. The reason for this was that the president had notified the democratic leaders that the senate would be adjourned and so rather than discuss the question as to what the senate would do during the extra session it adjourned.

Forty Homes Gone.

EUREKA, CALIF., March 17.—Fire destroyed about 50 small buildings, occupied by the poorer classes of this place. The total loss is about $5,000. The fire was caused by a defective stove in the house occupied by W. O. Brodie.

Against Ticket Scalpers.

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 17.—Railroad ticket scalpers will have to quit business. Hills making their business illegal in Montana and North Dakota have been passed and similar bills are pending in Minnesota and South Dakota.

Postmaster Scales Has Resigned.

CARLETON, N. B., March 17.—Postmaster Scales announces that he has tendered his resignation to President Cleveland, but has not yet received a response. Mr. Scales was appointed by President Harrison.

Death Sentences Commuted.

ASHVILLE, N. C., March 17.—The sentences of Wiley and Tom Whitson, murderers, who were to hang at Baker's yard, March 24, have been commuted by Gov. Carr to 30 years in the penitentiary.

Sailed Under American Colors.

NEW YORK, March 17.—The steamship Paris sailed on her first trip for Southampton in the service of the American line Wednesday evening. No attempt was made to detain her.

To Impose the Office.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 17.—A resolution was offered in the legislature Wednesday to impeach all collectors for crookedness in the management of state funds.

To Reassume the Office.

PARIS, March 17.—Yielding to pressure of all the college and all the college will resume the office of minister of justice.
